Easy French Ratatouille

This recipe has several steps, I'm not gonna lie, but it's delicious!

Makes 8 - 10 Servings

Ingredients

2 large eggplants
2 yellow onions
3 bell peppers
6-8 medium zucchini
3-4 cloves garlic
1 1/2 - 2 tbsp olive oil
4 large tomatoes
1 bay leaf
3-4 sprigs thyme
1/4 cup loosely packed basil, sliced into ribbons
Extra basil for garnishing
Salt and pepper

Directions

Peel the eggplants, if desired, and chop them into bite-sized cubes. Transfer them to a strainer set over a bowl and toss with a tbsp of salt. Let the eggplant sit while you prepare the rest of the ingredients.

Dice the onions and roughly chop the peppers, zucchinis, and tomatoes into bite-sized pieces. Mince the garlic. The vegetables will be cooked in batches, so keep each one in a separate bowl.

Warm a tsp of olive oil in a large (at least 5 1/2 quart) Dutch oven or pot over medium-high heat. Add the onions and a generous pinch of salt. Sauté until the onions have softened and are just beginning to brown, about 10 minutes. Add the peppers and continue cooking until the peppers have also softened, about another 5 minutes. Transfer the onions and peppers to a clean bowl.

Add another teaspoon of oil to the pot and sauté the zucchini with a generous pinch of salt until the zucchini has softened and is beginning to brown, about 5 minutes. Transfer the zucchini to the bowl with the onions and peppers.

Rinse the eggplant under running water and squeeze the cubes gently with your hands to remove as much moisture as possible. Warm two tsp of oil in the pan and sauté the eggplant until it has softened and has begun to turn translucent, about 10 minutes. Transfer the eggplant to the bowl with the other vegetables.

During cooking, a brown glaze will gradually build on the bottom of the pan. If it looks like this glaze is beginning to turn black and burn, turn down the heat to medium. You can also dissolve the glaze between batches by pouring 1/4 cup of water or wine into the pan and scraping up the glaze. Pour the deglazing liquid into the bowl with the vegetables.

Warm another tsp of olive oil in the pan and sauté the garlic until it is fragrant and just starting to turn golden, about 1 minute. Add the tomatoes, bay leaf and whole sprigs of thyme. As the tomato juices begin to bubble, scrape up the brown glaze on the bottom of the pan.

Add all of the vegetables back into the pan and stir until everything is evenly mixed. Bring the stew to a simmer, then turn down the heat to low. Stirring occasionally, simmer for at least 20 minutes or up to 1 1/2 hours. Shorter cooking time will leave the vegetables in larger, more distinct pieces; longer cooking times will break the vegetables down into a silky stew.

Remove the bay leaf and thyme sprigs. Just before taking the ratatouille off the heat, stir in the basil. Sprinkle the extra basil and a drizzle of good olive oil over each bowl as you serve.

Leftovers can be refrigerated for a week or frozen for up to three months. Ratatouille is often better the second day, and it can be eaten cold, room temperature, or warmed.

Notes:

Smaller Batch: This recipe can be cut in half and adapted to use whatever vegetables you have.

Flavour Extras: For something different try adding a tbsp of smoked paprika, a pinch of red pepper flakes, a quarter cup of red wine, or a splash of vinegar to the ratatouille.

Fennel, Avocado and Grapefruit Salad with Orange Vinaigrette

Makes 4 Servings

Ingredients

For the Vinaigrette

Juice of 1/2 an orange (approximately 2 tsp)

1 tsp Dijon mustard (I like grainy mustard, but use what you have)

1/8 tsp sea salt

1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper

2 tsp extra virgin olive oil

For the Salad

1 large fennel bulb
1 ripe avocado
1 cup grapefruit segments

Directions

In a small jar with a tight-fitting lid, combine all of the vinaigrette ingredients. Shake vigorously, to emulsify the dressing.

Trim the fennel bulb by cutting across the top to remove the stalks (save the green fronds), and slicing across the bottom at the root end. Cut the bulb in half lengthwise, and remove the hard core from each half.

Use a mandoline, if you have one, to create paper-thin slices of fennel. Or, slice as thinly as you can with a very sharp knife. Peel the avocado, and cut into slices. Add them to a bowl with the fennel and grapefruit segments.

Immediately toss with the vinaigrette, making sure to distribute the dressing over all of the avocado and fennel. Set aside at room temperature for 30-60 minutes. The longer the salad "marinates", the more tender the fennel will be.

Just before serving, toss some of the green fennel fronds into the salad.

10 Minute Black Bean Burgers

Makes 4 Servings

Ingredients

1/2 onion, diced
1 can black beans, rinsed and drained well
1/2 cup whole spelt flour
2 slices bread, crumbled (use toasted Stonemill bread)
1 tsp garlic powder
1 tsp onion powder
1/2 tsp seasoned salt
Salt and pepper to taste
Olive oil for frying

Directions

Sautee the onions until soft, about 3-5 minutes. In a large bowl, mash the beans until almost smooth. Add sautéed onions and the rest of the ingredients (except the oil), adding the flour a few tbsp at a time to combine well. Mixture will be thick.

Form bean mixture into patties, approximately 1/2 inch thick, then fry patties in a small amount of oil until slightly firm. Serve with your favourite burger toppings and enjoy with a side salad or vegetable stir-fry.

Eggplant Parmesan

Makes 4 Servings

Ingredients

Preheat oven to 350° F.

Slice eggplant into circular pieces. Combine egg whites, parmesan cheese, oregano and pepper in a bowl and dip eggplant in mixture, then into flour to coat.

Heat oil in a non-stick skillet over medium heat.

Fry eggplant pieces on both sides until golden brown.

Spoon tomato sauce on the bottom of a baking dish, place the eggplant onto sauce then add another layer of tomato sauce then eggplant, top with shredded mozzarella cheese.

Cook in oven until cheese is melted and sauce and eggplant is hot.

Broccoli Bean Soup

Makes 10-12 Servings

Ingredients

2 cups adzuki beans, rinsed and drained
12 cups water, stock or broth (unsalted, msg and yeast free)
2 cups onion, finely chopped
4 cups broccoli
4 tbsp simmered soy sauce
⅓ cup fresh parsley, finely chopped
2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
2 vegetable bouillon cubes
1 tsp basil
½ to 1 tsp sea salt
½ tsp cumin or paprika powder

1/4 tsp sea kelp
Cayenne pepper to taste
Optional: 1 – 2 tsp raw honey or other sweetener to taste

Directions

Using a large stock pot add the beans, 12 cups of water or stock, onion and broccoli and cook on low to medium heat for 20 minutes. Add the remaining ingredients and cook for another 20 minutes on medium heat.

Take 4 cups of beans and liquid from the soup, use a blender or food processor to liquefy it, then re-add it to the soup.

Serve hot and enjoy.

This easy to digest and fiber packed soup is high in calcium with a good source of protein. It will keep for 5 to 7 days in the fridge and can be frozen.

Cheese, Asparagus and Leek Strata

Stratas are “make-ahead” wonders meant to be put together in a few minutes then refrigerated overnight or at least 4 to 6 hours before baking. This one is loaded with seasonal asparagus and savory veggies.

Ingredients

1 tbsp butter
5 cups sliced asparagus
2 cup sliced leeks (about 3 small)
½ cup water
1 tbsp dried parsley
½ tsp dried tarragon

2 ½ cups milk
3 large organic eggs
1 large organic egg white

Combine milk, eggs, and egg white, and stir with a whisk until well-blended. Pour the milk mixture over strata. Cover strata, and chill for 4-6 hours or overnight.

Preheat oven to 400° F and bake strata uncovered for 40 minutes or until set.

Stuffed Mushrooms

Ingredients

4 large, white stuffing mushrooms, cleaned
1 tsp lemon juice
½ garlic clove
½ shallot, peeled
½ tbsp bread crumbs
2 tbsp shredded low fat mozzarella or jalapeno Allegro cheese
1 tsp low sodium tamari sauce
1 tsp tahini

Directions

Preheat oven to 350° F.

Remove and set aside the mushroom stems. Dip the mushroom caps in lemon juice to prevent discoloration and set aside. In a food processor fitted with the metal blade, process the garlic, shallot and mushroom stems just until chopped, not pureed. Add the bread crumbs, cheese, tamari and tahini. Pulse until well mixed and moistened.

Using a spoon, fill the mushroom caps with the cheese mixture, dividing it evenly among them. Transfer the mushrooms to a nonstick baking sheet and bake for 10-15 minutes, or until the filling browns and turns a little crispy.

*Clean mushrooms with a brush or paper towel rather than rinsing them under cold water to prevent them from absorbing water.
